AIUB Secures Top Position in Bangladesh in THE World University Rankings 2027

Wednesday, September 30, 2026

American International University-Bangladesh (AIUB) has secured the top position among all universities in Bangladesh in the Times Higher Education (THE) World University Rankings 2027, placing in the 801–1000 global ranking band. The 2027 edition of the rankings was published on 30 September 2026 and features universities from 118 countries.

AIUB's position reflects its performance across the key areas evaluated by THE, including teaching, research environment, research quality, industry engagement, and international outlook. The ranking methodology draws on a range of performance indicators, including research output and impact, citations, student-to-staff ratio, industry engagement, and international collaboration and outlook.

AIUB's achievement in the 2027 rankings reflects the University's continued commitment to academic excellence, research and innovation, industry collaboration, and international engagement.

AIUB JMC Faculty Member Presents Research at International Conference in New Delhi

Tuesday, September 1, 2026

The Department of Journalism and Mass Communication (JMC), AIUB, announced that senior faculty member Mr. Niaz Majumdar presented his research paper, "Through the Lens: Visualising Culture and Livelihood of Banjara (Gypsy) Community of India," at the Visual Research in South and Southeast Asia (IVSA) 2026 conference on September 1, 2026, at South Asian University, New Delhi, India.

The international conference brought together scholars, researchers, and practitioners focused on visual research across South and Southeast Asia. Mr. Majumdar's participation offered an opportunity to present research from Bangladesh on the Banjara community's culture, everyday life, and livelihood, exploring visual approaches to documenting and understanding the practices and lived experiences of a historically marginalized community, contributing to discussions on cultural representation and community identity.

FASS Dean's Award Ceremony: Celebrating Excellence and Achievement

Tuesday, September 1, 2026

The Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences (FASS), AIUB, organized the Dean's Award Ceremony for Fall 2025-26 and Spring 2025-26 semesters on 1st September 2026, recognizing outstanding students from BSS in Economics, BSS in JMC, LL.B., BA in English, and LL.M. programs.

The event was graced by Prof. Dr. Md. Abdur Rahman, Pro-Vice Chancellor; Prof. Dr. Tazul Islam, Dean, FASS; and Dr. Faria Sultana, Associate Dean, FASS, along with department heads Dr. Prodhan Mahbub Ibne Seraj (English), Dr. Pradip Kumar Panday (JMC), Dr. Robayet Ferdous Syed (Law), Dr. Ashrafuzzaman Khan (Social Science), and Prof. Dr. Taslima Mansoor, Advisor, Department of Law. Faculty, students, and guardians also attended.

Tuesday, September 1, 2026

Students of the Department of English, AIUB, enrolled in "Appreciation of Drama" and "Classical Literature" courses attended a live performance of Sophocles' Oedipus Rex, titled "From Page to Stage: Oedipus Rex in Theatre," on 1 September 2026, at Bangladesh Mohila Samiti, Bailey Road, Dhaka.

The excursion was organized by course teachers Touhida Easmin and Sabrina Karim, Assistant Professors, Department of English, to let students experience literature beyond the classroom. For many, it was their first live classical drama performance, deepening their understanding of how voice, movement, lighting, and staging transform a written text into a theatrical experience.

The event strengthened students' appreciation of theatre as a living form of literature, connecting academic learning with real-world performance.

Student-led Research Seminar: Dialogues in Bangladesh

Tuesday, September 1, 2026

The Department of Social Science, AIUB, organized a research seminar titled "Student-Led Research Seminar: Dialogues in Bangladesh" on 1 September 2026, where students identified pressing social problems in Bangladesh and presented their ideas and perspectives through critical thinking and academic dialogue.

The seminar was attended by Professor Dr. Saiful Islam, Vice Chancellor; Professor Dr. Md. Abdur Rahman, Pro-Vice Chancellor; Dr. Faria Sultana, Associate Dean, FASS; and Dr. Ashrafuzzaman Khan, Head, Department of Social Science.

Students shared observations and proposed ideas for understanding and addressing social challenges, while strengthening their research, presentation, and analytical skills through peer exchange. The presence of senior officials underscored the importance of student-led research, reaffirming the Department's commitment to a research-oriented environment and to connecting classroom learning with real-world issues.

Remembering A Visionary Leader: The Late Dr. Anwarul Abedin (Death Anniversary)

Saturday, September 5, 2026

A VISION THAT LIVES ON
The Late Dr. Anwarul Abedin
Founder Chairman, AIUB
Fourteen years ago today, we lost a visionary who believed that quality higher education could transform lives and strengthen a nation.
His vision gave rise to AIUB, an institution built to bring world-class education within reach of young Bangladeshis.
Today, we honour his memory and remember with gratitude the legacy he left behind.
May Allah grant him eternal peace.
